R. T. Marshall of Mt. Carmel sold 90 head of fat cattle, weighing an average of 1,567, at 5 cents per pound. They were bought principally at two year old for $3 to $4 cents. The sale resulted in a profit of $3,700 for grazing and feeding, and Mr. Marshall has about 3,000 bushels of corn left in the crib.

The old story of Prometheus is a parallel Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire and gave it to man. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus and vultures were set upon him. They only as his liver. This grew again as fast as it was pecked away.
Are his sufferings to be imagined?

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is no cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischief lies. The stomach is overtaxed, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up into the liver. Then come the vultures—the torments of a diseased liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases.
There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self.

DOWN IN A VAULT.

There is Where the Body of Isabelle Kerr Was Found.

Special to Public Ledger.
MAYSVILLE, O., Dec. 24.

A deep gloom has settled over this quiet little village by the awful death last Saturday at Portsmouth of little Isabelle Kerr.

The mother, who lives at this place, in company with her daughter, was shopping at Portsmouth, when at 12 o'clock, while spending a few minutes with a friend, the little girl was missed.

Search was instituted and kept up until 6 o'clock in the evening, when sixty feet down in the vault and buried six feet beneath the accumulations of that horrible place was the lifeless body of little Belle found.

A great mystery surrounds this affair, as it doesn't look reasonable that she could have fallen into this place without some help.

The father is the operator here on the Scioto Valley Railroad. He was the first person to think of the vault and sent word to have it examined.

The burial took place at Waverly, O., Monday.

THE MORAL'S PLAIN.

These Young Men Don't Smoke Cigarettes and Play Duce.

The People's Traction Company of Philadelphia not long ago accepted the resignations of fifteen of the best conductors on its lines, and did so with regret. Following the name of each of the men who resigned, the words "Resigned, O. K." were entered on the company's record book. That meant that any of the fifteen who applied for work in the near future could get it if there was the slightest chance.

The young men were all students in the Jefferson Medical College, and the Superintendent of the line says that they made the best conductors employed by the company. All told this summer, more than fifty college students were on the payroll of the company. Their earnings averaged about $15 a week, and as they were able to live for about $5 a week, most of them have money enough to pay their expenses this year at college.

TO REORGANIZE

The Senate in Both Committees and Elective Officers.

And Take the Senate Management Out of the Hands of Older Members.

A Few of the Leading Western Senators Have Taken Action to Reorganize the Senate. Others Are in Favor of Waiting Until a More Convenient Season.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The caucus held Monday afternoon by the republican senators, although devoid of positive action, demonstrated the fact that a probably successful attempt will soon be made to reorganize the senate in both committees and elective officers. The senators were not in session more than half an hour, but during that brief period there was a general clearing of the atmosphere, which had been somewhat obscured by the action of a few senators who met Saturday night for the purpose of preparing a plan of action that should result in taking the management of the senate out of the hands of the older members.

The result of Monday afternoon's talk is a reconciliation of conflicting claims and the establishment of a sincere desire on the part of all present to that which is for the best interests of the whole party. The caucus met with a feeling of unanimity in the minds of some as to what Messrs. Hancherow, Pettigrew, Clark, Mantle, Dubois, Chandler, Gallinger and Trovare, who hold the chair, had referred to, intended doing in the matter of reorganization. A few of the leaders of these western senators were determined to force action at once, but Senators Proctor and Chandler favored waiting until a more convenient season and were not prepared to go to the extreme to which the course of the others pointed.

Mr. Dubois was opposed to permitting the chairman of the caucus, Mr. Sherman, appoint the committee to fill the existing committee vacancies, as he looked upon this as inimical to the interests of the younger members. He had a resolution providing for the selection of a committee of nine for this purpose by the caucus. Mr. Hoar had a resolution prepared instructing Senator Sherman, as chairman of the caucus, to name the committee, but neither proposition was submitted. It is said that the discussion showed quite plainly that the caucus would not permit Mr. Dubois' plan to prevail and Mr. Sherman's privilege be set aside. It was finally agreed that it would be better to wait until a future day for the determination of the whole subject.

Senator Frye was suggested as president pro tempore and no other name was mentioned. He will be nominated, but it is deemed useless to do anything in the matter, for the reason that no president pro tempore can be elected so long as the vice-president fills the chair. If the republicans show a majority, they will have enough votes to elect the president pro tempore the election will be held. It is understood that Mr. Sherman is to consult with the republican caucus chairman and arrange for a time for this vote to be taken. If, by that time, the republicans have agreed upon a candidate for the other office, the whole ticket will be placed in the field. Of course, in order to reorganize the senate the republicans must have two votes outside of their own ranks and Senator Stewart and Jones, of Nevada, are generally looked upon as the men who will vote with the republicans on reorganization. Mr. Stewart is bitterly opposed to Mr. Dubois' plan, because he lays at the door of the young senator from Idaho the blame for his removal from the committee on appropriations. This was one reason that actuated the committee in proceeding cautiously. Again, it was pointed out that the republican members were endeavoring to secure an organization on monetary lines, and that the popular vote was not being met and the democratic vote was not being secured to surrender their control. The silver republicans and democrats Monday morning, looking upon the republican plan as a move to divide the party, they may not be successful. It is claimed that they will divide according to their predilections for the two great parties Messrs. Allen and Kyle, of the democratic, and Messrs. Jones, Stewart, Butler and Peffer with the republicans. "The republicans need two out of these four votes. Republican say that all differences will be reconciled and that when they place a ticket in the field it will have the necessary majority. It is hardly possible to say, that this reorganization will be effected before the holidays.

PATERSON, N. J., Dec. 3.—The falling of a ceiling in public school No. 3 on Main street occurred Monday morning, causing a panic among the children, who were between the ages of 9 to 12 years, jumped from their seats and made a rush for the door, and the entire school was in a state of high excitement. When the dust had partly subsided a number of children were found to be injured. Some were unconscious and most all seemed to be in a half fainting condition. That assurance seemed to satisfy Mr. Cripp (dem., Ga.), who had raised the question, and the matter went through without further contention.

THE BILL

To Be Presented to Congress by the Federation of Labor.

It Will Restrict the Jurisdiction of the United States Courts

In Proceedings of Contempts—The Bill is the Outgrowth of the Trial and Conviction of Eugene V. Debs and His Associates in the Railway Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 3.—The American Federation of Labor Monday made public the text of the bill to restrict the jurisdiction of courts of the United States in proceedings of contempt which it will present to congress. The bill is the outgrowth of what organized labor calls the "personation" of Eugene V. Debs and the other labor leaders who were engaged in the great railroad strike last year. The bill, it is announced, was prepared by one of the ablest attorneys in the United States, but his name will not be made public. The bill is brief and is as follows:

"Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled: That the courts of the United States, sitting as courts of equity, shall not have jurisdiction to punish for contempt any person charged with the violation of any order or decree of courts whose acts in the premises constitute, arise out of or are connected with the commission of any offense indictable under the law of the United States or of the state in which the offense was committed, but in every such case the offense against such court shall be deemed merged in the greater offense against the state or the United States, as the case may be."

A CONFERENCE

Of Senators Favorable to the Free Coinage of Silver Held.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A conference of senators favorable to the free coinage of silver was held Monday morning in the marble room. There were present about fifteen senators, made up of republicans, democrats and populists. Prominent among them were Senators Teller, Stewart, Call, Allen, Tillman and Mantle. The conference was called for the purpose of enabling those favoring silver to discuss the subject in an informal way. No effort was made to outline a formal plan of campaign. The subject that animated those present, however, showed that they intend to keep up the fight in the senate as vigorously as they have in the past. The president's message is bound, Mr. Teller says, to open up a discussion of the financial question, and there can be no discussion of that question in the senate without a discussion of the free coinage question.
